For the Love of God
June 30 – July 6, 2014
Daily Bible Reading & Prayer Guide

In 2014, The Church at Brook Hills began a new Bible reading plan that will take us through the entire Bible over the next two years, reading the New Testament and Psalms twice and the rest of the Old Testament once. These weekly readings are also informing the preaching on most Sundays as we all study God's Word together.

It's never too late to join us. Simply begin with this week's readings. If you ever get behind, just pick up with whatever day we're on. You can find each day's reading along with a daily devotional from For the Love of God by D.A. Carson corresponding to each day's reading on the Brook Hills app available on both Android and Apple devices (brookhills.org/bhapp) You can also find additional sermons in this series and weekly resources to help guide your time in small group and family worship online at Radical.net/FTLOG.

July 5: Joshua 7; Psalms 137-138
July 6: Joshua 8; Psalm 139

Scripture Memory

Joshua 1:1-9
Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.

Pray for Our Lives

Praise God for His ever-faithful presence in each of our individual lives as well as our corporate life as a faith family. Ask Him to grow our trust in His Word and promises. Pray for God's clear guidance in where He is leading us. Ask Him to grant us His strength and courage to follow Him wherever He leads. Thank God for the gift of His Word. Meditate on God's promises and commands in Joshua 1:1-9 and reflect on how they apply to our own lives.
