For the Love of God
February 17-23, 2014
Daily Bible Reading & Prayer Guide

In 2014, The Church at Brook Hills began a new Bible reading plan that will take us through the entire Bible over the next two years, reading the New Testament and Psalms twice and the rest of the Old Testament once. These weekly readings are also informing the preaching on most Sundays as we all study God's Word together.

It's never too late to join us. Simply begin with this week's readings. If you ever get behind, just pick up with whatever day we're on. You can find each day's reading along with a daily devotional from For the Love of God by D.A. Carson corresponding to each day's reading on the Brook Hills app available on both Android and Apple devices (brookhills.org/bhapp) You can also find additional sermons in this series and weekly resources to help guide your time in small group and family worship online at Radical.net/FTLOG.

As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring it about that many people should be kept alive, as they are today.

Pray for Our Lives

Praise God for His sovereignty in the joys and hardships of life. Ask God to help us rightly understand His goodness to us, even in circumstances that we might not welcome. Pray for us all to accept the responsibility we have in how we react to all of life's circumstances. Pray our daily lives will constantly and consistently reflect our joyful dependence on the Lord. Ask God to continually develop our trust in Him to guide us through every aspect and situation of our lives. Praise Him for the hope we have in knowing He sovereignly controls all things.
